Sandwiches, muffins, cold drinks, water and coffee will be available just outside the kitchen beside the

E & L Treasure Trove table.

“Lest We Forget”

The originally biblical expression was first used in military context in an 1897 poem by Rudyard Kipling, "Recessional", written to commemorate Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee.

The phrase occurs eight times; and is repeated at the end of the first four stanzas in order to add particular emphasis regarding the dangers of failing to remember.
